entire journey referring to our vast experience to help make the best decision for you. Many people find that hiring David Pedrazas, the top divorce lawyer Riverton Utah might be the best decision they make throughout the divorce process.

There are steps, processes, and alternatives during a divorce, and we will be there through each part of this process.

Uncontested Divorce or Divorce Mediation

When necessary, we will act as your mediator if you are undergoing an uncontested divorce. We will stay with you until you are satisfied with the outcome of the process.

Child Support

When young children are involved, we will help you get fair child support to ensure that your child will not be financially harmed as a result of the divorce. We will also ensure that child support is tied to custody and visitations.

Child Custody and Visitation

If the court decides you will be the non-custodial parent, David Pedrazas, divorce attorney Riverton Utah and his team will treat the process as our obligation to ensure that you receive the best possible rights to co-parent you, child or children. We want to ensure that you will have the right amount of custody and visitation rights to ensure your relationship with your children remains strong.

Alimony

It is important for everyone to feel represented when determining the amount of alimony involved in a divorce. Whether you are paying or receiving, we will help you work with the court to get the right amount. If necessary, we will also help you argue your case for an alimony adjustment.

Division of Assets & Debts

In any divorce, it is important to ensure that community and non-community property is divided fairly. The decision about who gets to stay in the house as well as dividing assets and debts is important. David Pedrazas and his team will work tirelessly to help you get the best deal possible.

Paternity Law

Utah has specific laws regarding divorce and the recognition of the biological father. We can use our experience to help ensure you and your children have the appropriate recognition under the law.
