Why Choose David Pedrazas as Your Divorce Lawyer in Draper, UT?

Attorney David Pedrazas is committed to helping clients navigate the stormy seas of divorce with informed and educated decisions. For over 20 years, we've consistently been recognized as the top law firm regarding divorce. Our approach that's both compassionate and no-nonsense, helps clients realize that to obtain a fair solution, they must first explore all the options available. A divorce proceeding is not something to enter into without preparation. This is why our clients are among the most prepared and enjoy the most satisfying outcomes in Utah.

As someone who experiences divorce in UT, you must make many decisions that will affect your future and the futures of those dependent upon you. These often include:

Child Custody and Visitation:

Where will the children live? Will custody be shared? Or will one parent be custodial while the other enjoys visitation?

Child Support:

How much monetary support will the children need and which parent will supply it? How often will it be paid? Will the funds be mailed, direct-deposited, or withdrawn from a separate checking account? What about future expenses such as college or trade school?

Division of Assets & Debts:

Who will get the home and the car? How will retirement benefits be divided? Who remains responsible for existing bills and financial obligations, and how will these be paid?

Alimony:

Will alimony be paid? If so, which spouse is responsible? What's a fair amount, and how will it be distributed?

Paternity:

Is paternity an issue? How will this be resolved, and what does it mean to both parties and the child?

With the right divorce attorney, you'll gain an understanding of each of the legal issues that affect you and your minor children, and you'll receive sound advice on which courses of action benefit you best. When you go into court with the Law Office of David Pedrazas on your side, you'll have confidence in knowing that someone besides yourself is looking out for your best interests.
