The Law Office of David Pedraza handles the following issues:

Mediation

Not every divorce case will need to go to trial. If you and your spouse are able to complete an uncontested divorce, we can act as a legal mediator to ensure that your interests are accurately represented throughout the process.

Child Custody and Visitation

When children are involved, child custody disputes are common. If you want to act as the custodial parent, we will do our best to achieve that outcome on your behalf. If you are named non-custodial parent, we will work hard to ensure that you are able to be as involved in your children's lives as possible.

Child Support

During child support proceedings, our team protects your financial interests, as well as the interests of your children. Our goal is to make sure the child support arrangement is fair and that it takes all relevant information into account.

Paternity

Paternity proceedings begin when there is an issue related to the identity of a child's biological father. Regardless of your role in the proceedings, we will defend your interests aggressively.

Division of Assets & Debts

Nearly every divorce case will involve asset and debt division. We can handle the asset and debt division of all complexities. Our team will work hard to ensure that all relevant assets and debts are disclosed and included in the proceedings. We will also do our best to ensure a fair and equitable settlement.

Alimony

Alimony, which is also known as "spousal support," maybe awarded temporarily or permanently. Whether you are paying alimony or receiving it, we will help you make sure the amount and arrangement is appropriate.
