The Law Offices of David Pedrazas: Helping Individuals Get the Terms They Need

There are some divorces that can be done amicably and without issue, such as the separation of two people without kids or property. However, if there are any children, property, or debts accrued during the marriage, then things get tricky and it is in your best interest to get a Highland, UT divorce attorney who will fight for your best interests. This includes situations such as the following:

Alimony

Alimony is often one of the biggest contentions between ex-spouses. Our law offices work both sides of this matter, helping some of our clients negotiate prompt and fair alimony payments and ensure others are not overburdened with unfair payment requests.

Division of Assets & Debts

During the course of a marriage, the court stops seeing spouses as individuals and instead as a combined unit. This often makes things difficult when it's time for a marriage to end. Our team will help you navigate that exit cleanly by providing friendly legal counsel that will ensure you get a fair division of assets and debts that will set you up for a secure future and a less stressed present.

Child Support

Divorce isn't an event that just impacts spouses. Our team of attorneys and paralegals has significant experience in all family law proceedings and work hard to ensure our clients find a fair balance of financial obligations — and ensure those finances go directly to supporting their child or children.

Child Custody and Visitation

To add to the above point, if you decide or the court decides you to be the non-custodial parent, then you need a bold divorce attorney who will fight for your parental rights. Parents should not be denied visitation, and we work personally with each of our clients to determine their unique situation and desires so that we can create the best personalized strategy to present to the court that will secure desired custody and visitation.

Paternity Law

Utah has its own specific laws regarding paternity and establishing legal paternity is necessary for matters of child support, visitation rights, child custody, and child benefits (ie a child cannot inherit a father's veteran benefits if legal paternity was never established).

What Our Clients in Salt Lake City are Saying

It has been a pleasure to work with Mr. Pedrazas throughout the course of my court hearings lasting nearly a year. David has answered my questions and represented me well and in a timely manner, with great professionalism, honesty and counseled me with the best course of action for my circumstances. I would highly recommend David as a capable, knowledgeable and qualified attorney that will represent you in a fair manner and fight for your rights in your specific area of concern while being incredibly assertive and sticking to the issues and facts at hand. He has certainly gone above and beyond as he has represented me with multiple issues and concerns. Just what you would expect from a "top notch" attorney. ■

I just closed a custody case with David as my attorney and I have to say I am very impressed! I had met with a few attorneys who were expensive and told me what I wanted to hear. I ultimately decided to go with David and I am very glad that I did! He was honest, straight forward, and very easy to work with. Most importantly, in our mediation he fought hard for my child's best interests. He was awesome and made sure I didn't settle. For such an experienced and hard working attorney his rate is the best you'll find in the valley. He lives up to his reviews and I highly recommend him to anyone in need of a family law attorney. ■

David is a true professional at its finest! He was not only professional but he was nice, funny, and super responsive. I was at a time where I couldn't afford much but I needed this divorce, BADLY! I had contacted many lawyers, and David was the only one to tell "yes let's do this". I went into his office, filled out the paperwork, and today 3 months later I'm done! Thank you so much David!! If you are looking for an easy, fast, painless divorce, come to David! ■

Samantha Zamora

David helped me with my divorce a couple years ago. Very quick and painless process with his help. From the initial consultation, he was very straightforward and helped me understand the options I had so that I could make the best decision for myself. He was reasonably priced and prompt in both communication and filing. Definitely recommend him to anyone in the Salt Lake Area ■

I strongly recommend David for anyone who is dealing with extremely high conflict ex spouses. Child custody evaluations are becoming common on cases when parents dispute schedules, and they can be time consuming, confusing and expensive. David is very knowledgeable of evaluations, statutes, rules, and motions. He successfully fought to see that my ex had his entire motion dismissed completely in the last few weeks. His court demeanor and preparation is exactly what is needed when you have lengthy court procedures that aim to change parent time or custody standings. This is the attorney you need if you have any custody or divorce needs! ■

Will always use him again in any legal matter and i 100%recommend him, he's the best! ■

David was amazing. He fought hard, worked with me, and shows that he truly cares for people. He always got back to me in a timely manner, kept me updated with everything and to this day anytime I have questions or concerns he is always there. I recommend him highly to anyone looking for an excellent, professional, Affordable and caring Attorney. He Truly fights hard and shows it in the court room. Thanks David for helping me get my kids I couldn't have asked for anyone better. ■

David made sure that not only did my divorce go smoothly, but that things were taken care of. He pushed to make sure I got what I wanted and what was fair. He gave great advise and always had an answer to my questions. He made sure that when it was my court date or paperwork needed to be done, that my case was the main focus. I heard about him from a friend and I'm glad that he is my lawyer! ■

Felicia

David did an amazing job, the ex wanted to take 100% of my house and my boy and leave me with nothing. David made sure I got 50/50 on both... everything I asked for, he gave me. Thank you David. ■

I would strongly recommend hiring or consulting with David during any family or child law case. His experience shows in his ability to provide clear answers during what is usually a very difficult time in life. He has been established in the local area for some time and knows how to navigate the system to get desired results. In addition to frequent email communications, he was flexible with my work schedule and we met face to face multiple times after normal work hours to ensure that we were both on the same page and that we had all the necessary data to present a strong case. That was a big deal to me, and David will do that for his clients. On top of all that, he is a friendly person that is understanding of the difficult circumstances of a divorce and child custody which he puts all efforts into helping you get results. I would not hesitate to continue consulting with David if there are future needs. ■

I have to give kudos to Delta Airlines. I took a trip to Nashville on March 1st 2019. After a very disappointing business conference and feeling like it was a huge waste of money and my time I arrived at the terminal with time to spare. So I got lunch and ate it while waiting to board. When the time came I boarded the plane and was looking forward to just getting home when all of a sudden a flight attendant was calling out my name. My attention perked up at hearing my name and I was obviously a little confused. She came over and asked, "are you Julie Jensen?" I said yes, and she proceeds to hand me my wallet. In my bad mood and feeling the whole trip had been a huge let down I inadvertently had walked off and left my wallet sitting on the floor in the terminal. Not only did it have cash, but my passport, License, credit cards ect but it also had my layover and airfare ticket to get home. I didn't even know I had walked off and left it until she brought it to me. I can't even tell you the rush of emotions I felt all at once in the instance. I will be forever grateful that the plane did not take off before I got my wallet back and that the flight attendant was discreet when handling the situation. Thank you Delta. ■

I have a deep appreciation for any business or office that goes out of their way to truly show people that they care. The Law Office of David Pedrazas does just that. I had a friend who was referred to him for a complicated, emotional, and difficult divorce situation. My friend told me that right from the start David showed concern and compassion to her and that getting paid was secondary to her and her children's well being. He explained her options in detail and answered all her questions and concerns. Because he walked her through the whole process - she is now happily married and doing very well. She could never have imagined that things would turn out so well for her, after the years of sorrow she had been through. It's a special person that truly shows he cares about people. I would never hesitate to call him if I should need the services of an attorney. I know he would have my best interest at heart. ■

Definitely recommend!! if your looking for an attorney, CALL DAVID! Spoke with 4 different attorneys without a single piece of good advice or even knew what to do before finding David. David gave great advice, very knowledgeable and confident at what he does. Court case went EXACTLY as he said It would and got it thrown out before we even had to step foot in a court room. I sent David court papers (I reside in a different state) and he took care of it all from there. Completely painless on my end! ■

David stayed calm when I was not. He gave me the truth and did not sugar coat it. If you want to feel like you're right, talk with your friends. my side in mediation like that. I feel he is a genius on knowing court matters. He's also very personable and a great guy outside of court things, very relatable. I don't have a single bad thing to say about him. If you're looking for a lawyer for any reason, this is the guy. He also won't waste your time and money if you have dumb ideas, like I sometimes do. ■

David recently helped me with my custody case in which I was granted custody of my daughter. He did everything by the book and was very knowledgeable and a huge help. He even found a way to serve the paperwork legally through Facebook. would definitely recommend him to anyone who need a good family law attorney. Thank you David! ■

I found David after I had already paid another law firm whom had really messed up a custody case that should have been really straight forward. David has done an amazing job for me with getting custody. He's stuck with me through thick and thin knows what he is doing and holds everything in order. He is always on top of things and prepared going into the court room. I have had him as an attorney for four years now and has done an amazing job. I would not recommend anyone else but David as a family law attorney when fighting for custody. He knows what's feasible and willing to fight for anything. Thanks again David Tj ■

David has been our family attorney since 2013. My husband has had on going custody battles with his ex wife and David has been by our side 100% of the journey. He is so knowledgeable and thorough. He is always available for questions and answers. He truly cares about us as clients and the children involved. I would recommend him to anyone looking for help. He has been bombarded by filing after filing and has won every one, he has never given up! Thank you David for all you do for us and the boys. ■■

It has been a pleasure to work with Mr. Pedrazas throughout the course of my court hearings lasting nearly a year. David has answered my questions and represented me well and in a timely manner, with great professionalism, honestly and counseled me with the best course of action for my circumstances. I would highly recommend David as a capable, knowledgeable and qualified attorney that will represent you in a fair manner and fight for your rights in your specific area of concern while being incredibly assertive and sticking to the issues and facts at hand. He has certainly gone above and beyond as he has represented me with multiple issues and concerns. Just what you would expect from a "top notch" attorney. ■■

I just closed a custody case with David as my attorney and I have to say I am very impressed! I had met with a few attorneys who were expensive and told me what I wanted to hear. I ultimately decided to go with David and I am very glad that I did! He was honest, straight forward, and very easy to work with. Most importantly, in our mediation he fought hard for my child's best interests. He was awesome and made sure I didn't settle. For such an experienced and hard working attorney his rate is the best you'll find in the valley. He lives up to his reviews and I highly recommend him to anyone in need of a family law attorney. ■

David is a true professional at its finest! He was not only professional but he was nice, funny, and super responsive. I was at a time where I couldn't afford much but I needed this divorce, BADLY! I had contacted many lawyers, and David was the only one to tell "yes let's do this". I went into his office, filled out the paperwork, and today 3 months later I'm done! Thank you so much David!! If you are looking for an easy, fast, painless divorce, come to David! ■

David helped me with my divorce a couple years ago. Very quick and painless process with his help. From the initial consultation, he was very straightforward and helped me understand the options I had so that I could make the best decision for myself. He was reasonably priced and prompt in both communication and filing. Definitely recommend him to anyone in the Salt Lake Area ■

I strongly recommend David for anyone who is dealing with extremely high conflict ex spouses. Child custody evaluations are becoming common on cases when parents dispute schedules, and they can be time consuming, confusing and expensive. David is very knowledgeable of evaluations, statutes, rules, and motions. He successfully fought to see that my ex had his entire motion dismissed completely in the last few weeks. His court demeanor and preparation is exactly what is needed when you have lengthy court procedures that aim to change parent time or custody standings. This is the attorney you need if you have any custody or divorce needs! ■
