Frequently Asked Questions About High Net Worth Divorce

What Is a High Net Worth Divorce?

A high net worth divorce is one in which the couple has a large number of financial assets. The financial matters of high net worth couples are naturally more complex in a divorce than in more common divorces involving fewer property division issues. You will need to work with an experienced Utah high net worth divorce lawyer to ensure all your rights are fully protected and that you receive the fairest possible outcome of your case.
