DP utahdivorce.biz/Divorce/Military-Divorce.shtml

Divorce is a difficult process for anyone. When you add in the complications of the possibility of deployment, division of benefits, and other issues that are part of divorce when one or both spouses are members of the military, you need to secure the representation of an attorney who has helped people just like you before.

Family law attorney David Pedrazas has been helping people face the challenges that are present when military service is complicating the divorce equation. During his more than 20 years of service, he has helped many people through difficult situations. In one instance, he went through mediation via Skype with a client who was in a bunker in Iraq.

No matter what type of situation you are facing, David will work with you to help you get the best terms for your future.
